

IMMIGRATION: ITS ECONOMIC IMPACT ON U.S./MEXICO RELATIONS

Part of a Series of "Luncheons with a View" at Tom Ham's Lighthouse Restaurant sponsored by the LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF SAN DIEGO

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2007 AT 11:30 A.M.

Speakers at the second Immigration Luncheon will discuss the economic impact of immigration, particularly between Tijuana and San Diego.

- Do we need immigrants to supplement our workforce? – farm workers, laborers, service industry, technically trained?
- Are illegal immigrants a burden on society? on our economy?
- What can be improved for better border patrol and faster entry to the U.S. for daily workers?
- Should employees have a tamper-resistant identification card and number?
- What are border towns in Mexico doing to prevent illegal crossings and to handle people returned by the U.S.; what else could they do?
- When should family unification take precedence over immigration law?
