

Join the LWV and Celebrate Women by Recalling the Courageous Struggle for Suffrage

- What: Film showing, tea and sweets, and discussion following the film
- When: Sunday, October 9, 2011
- Where: La Jolla Library, 7555 Draper Ave., San Diego, CA 92037
- Time: 2-5 p.m.

The League of Women Voters of San Diego is pleased to host a film at the La Jolla Library recalling the enduring strength of several suffragists during a historic time for women and their struggle to gain inclusion at the polls. Ironed Jawed Angels is a brilliant film that illustrates the sacrifice, determination, and will in women during the second-wave suffrage movement, specifically highlighting the leadership of Alice Paul and Lucy Burns. Please join us for an afternoon of remembrance and discussion about women, rights, and how the League of Women Voters continues to stay engaged in the political climate.
