Writing Your Elected Representatives

As a voter, your opinions help determine your elected officials' positions. Let your representatives know your views by writing. Be brief. Give your name and address and your reasons for believing as you do. Describe a bill by its number or popular name. Time your letter to arrive when an issue is current. Commend officials who do things of which you particularly approve.

Address the US President as "The President" and use the salutation "Dear Mr. President." Address other elected officials as "The Honorable [Full Name]" with the salutation of "Dear [Senator/ Representative /Governor/Mayor/Councilmember] [Last name]."
