

The San Diego League is seeking nominations for its “Making Democracy Work” award

The award is designed to help commemorate the national League’s 90th anniversary year. It will honor an individual for his/her meaningful community activism in helping to make our community strong, vibrant, and fair. The award will be presented at our 90th Anniversary Luncheon on February 12, at the Prado in Balboa Park.

(Both self-nominations and those of others are welcome; applications can be completed by the nominee or by a nominator.)

Please complete and mail the following application by January 16, to LWV San Diego, 4901 Morena Boulevard, Suite 104, San Diego, CA 92117, Attention: Susan Baer. If you have any questions, please contact sbaer@san.rr.com

Nominee Contact Information:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Profession (current/previous): _____

How long has this individual been active in the San Diego community? _____

About the Nominee:

In one sentence, tell us why you or your Nominee should be considered for the Making Democracy Work award.

How do you or your Nominee does the nominee exemplify leadership?

Please describe in detail what impact this individual has had on our community. What population/organization/ event has benefited from the nominee’s efforts?

How does this individual stand out from other leaders in the community?

Do you/does the nominee exhibit leadership qualities in his/her career, at home, and/or in the community? Please provide examples.

Nominators Only: What is your relationship to/with the nominee?
