Ruben Navarrette, Jr., columnist and editorial board member of the San Diego Union-Tribune and commentator on numerous television and radio programs

- ◆ How should unauthorized immigrants currently in the U.S. be treated?
- ◆ For whom should federal immigration law provide legal entry into the U.S.?
- ◆ Should Federal immigration law include a Social Security card or other national ID card with secure identifiers for all persons residing in the U.S.?
- ◆ How should Federal immigration law be enforced?
- ◆ How should Federal immigration law balance long-term federal financial benefit from immigrants with the financial costs borne by state and local governments with large immigrant populations?
- ◆ Is it possible for Federal immigration law to be coordinated with U.S. foreign policy to proactively help improve economies, education and job opportunities, and living conditions of nations with large emigrating populations?
